SYNOPSIS—MAM'ZELLE MARIETTE

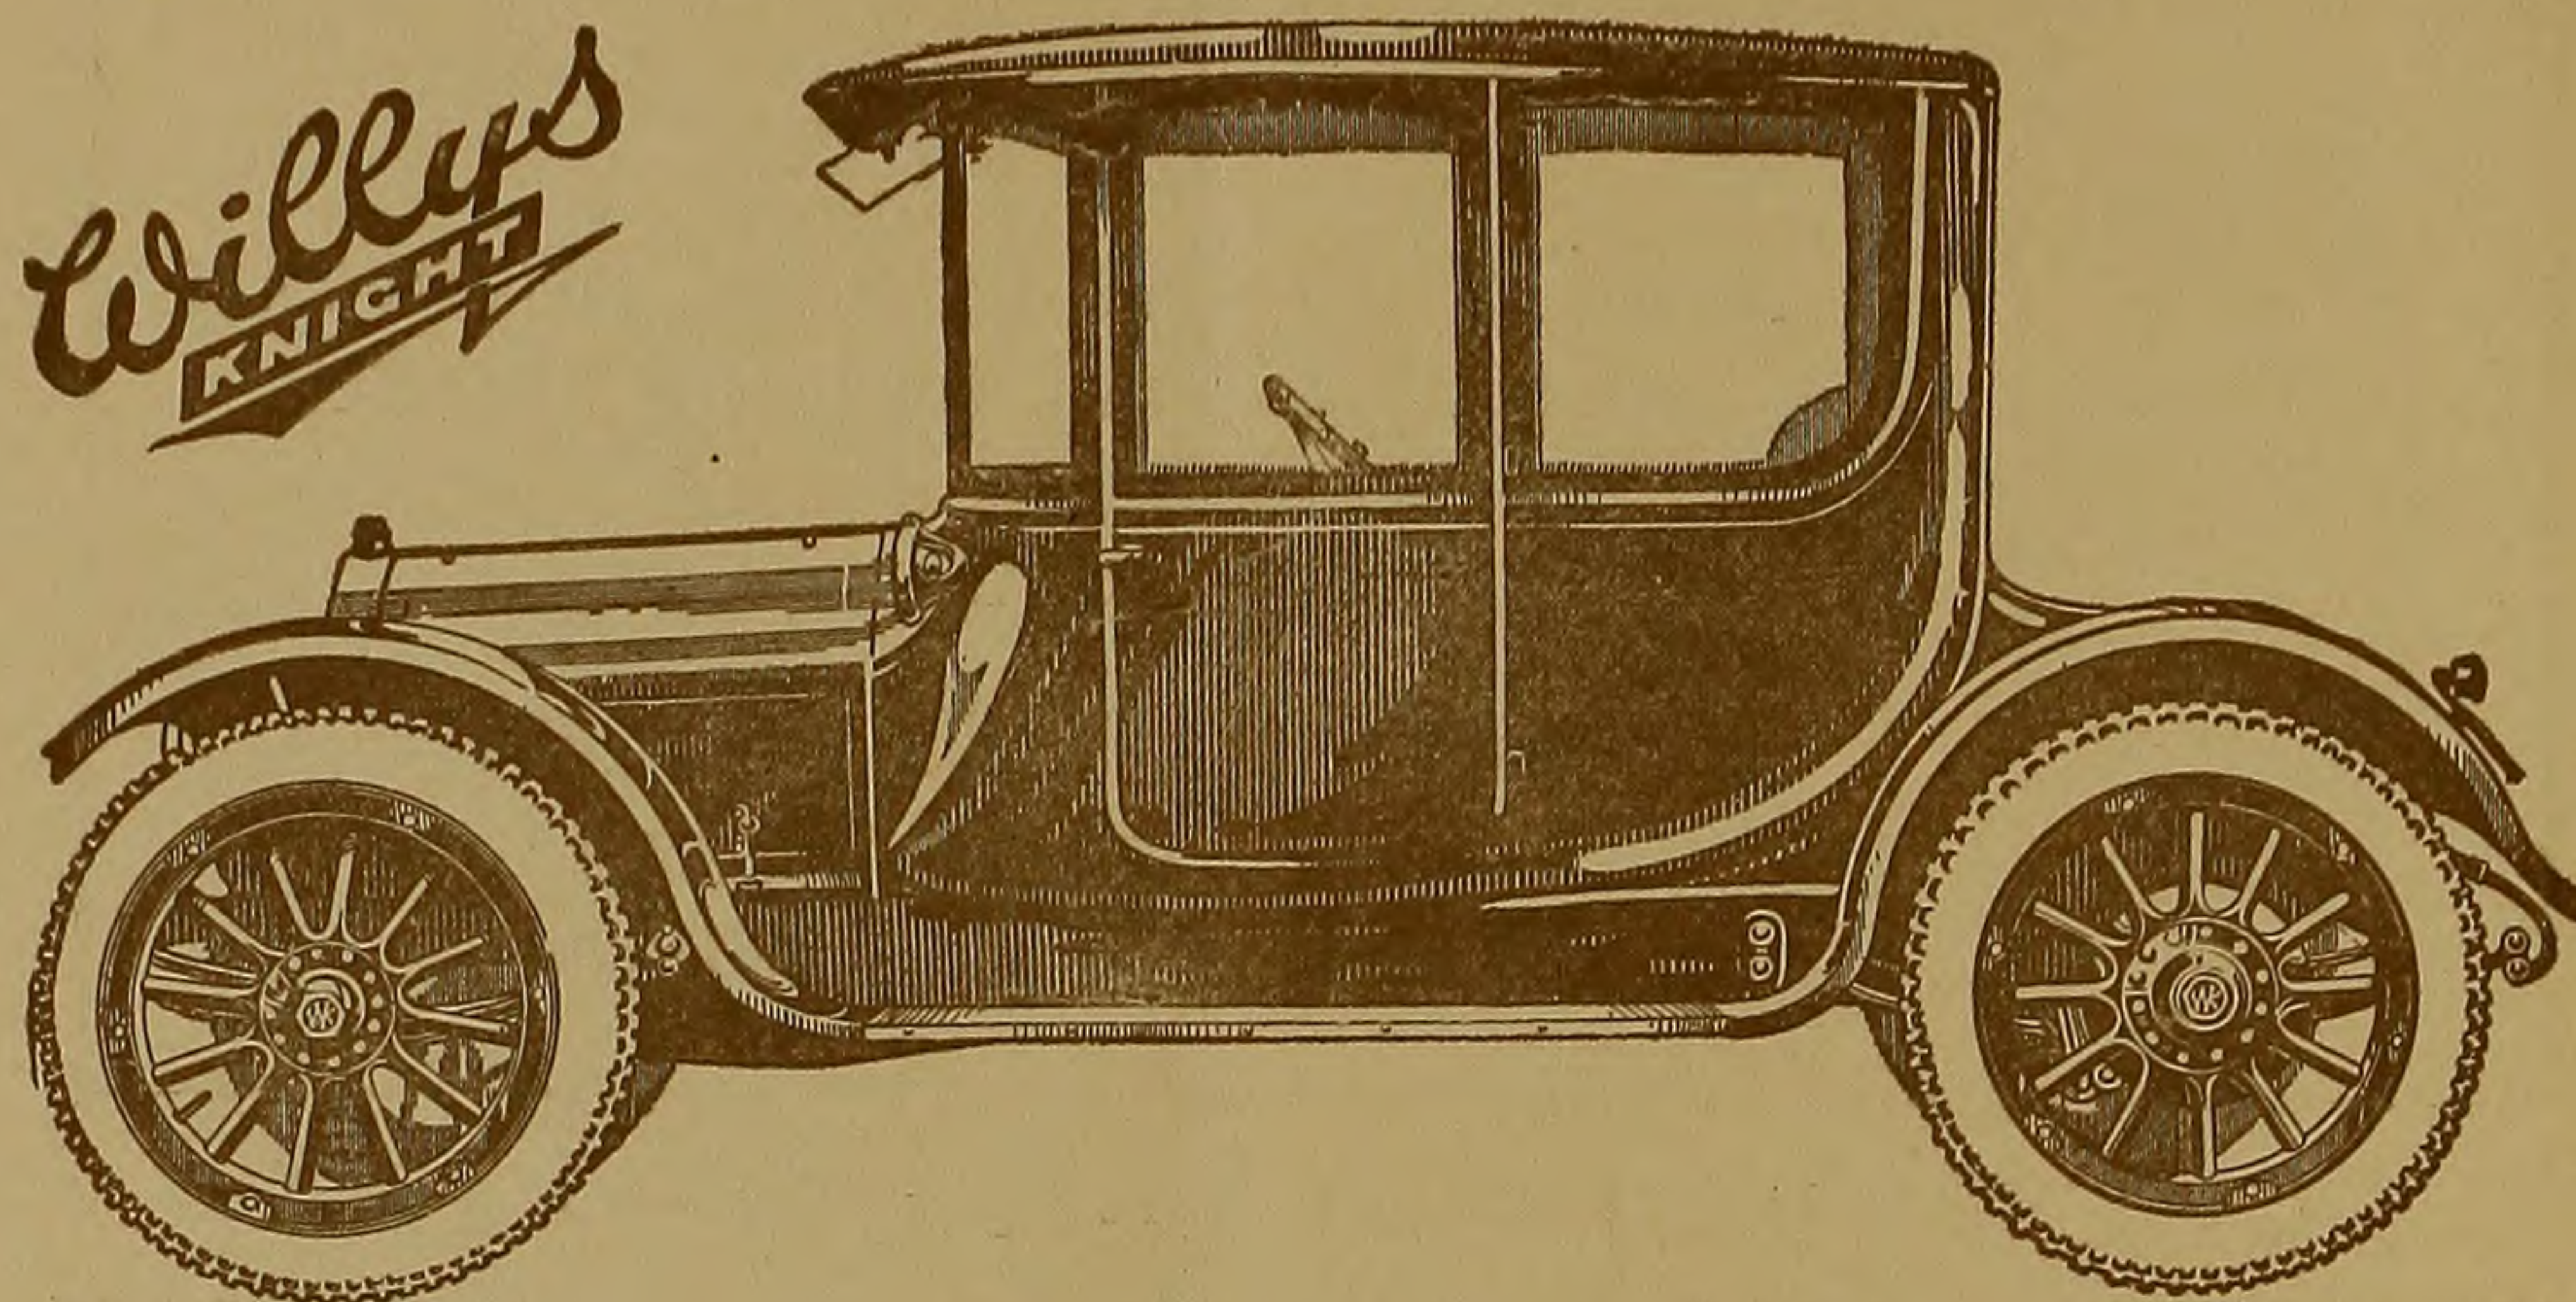

Pierre, Mr. Linden, a timid young peasant, is in love with Mariette, Miss Torpadie, his neighbor, but does not dare tell her. Also Mariette loves Pierre, but does not let him know of her affection on account of his wealth. Pierre desolate over her seeming coldness, tells her that he intends to join the army. He leaves her in despair, only to return disguised as an old shepherd to try to win her confidence. Unable to get the desired result he again disguises himself, this time as his cousin, Mlle. Madelon, and to her Mariette confides her love for Pierre. Overjoyed he throws off his disguise, and the two lovers hurry off to
